

2009/12/02

The impact of environmental issues on international legal regimes
-Possible contribution of Japan and EU to the future schemes-

Waseda University
Hiroyuki BANZAI

I. Backgrounds of “Climate Security”

- Impact of climate change on international security
- Risks posed by climate change
- Climate change as threats towhat?

II. Japanese Perspective on Climate Security

(1) Japanese Policy of “Total or Comprehensive Security”

- Traditional approach
- Comprehensive approach
 - Human security
 - Food security.....etc.

(2) Climate Security in “Comprehensive Security”

- Stake-holders
- Values to protect
- Threats
- Means to protect

(3) Japanese Role on the Climate Security

- Contribution to international security through non-military measures
- Climate security through the low-carbon society

III. Concluding Remarks

- Climate change as a matter of Chapter VII of Charter of the UN?
- Japan and EU as global partners